

I ask you to protect the public interest not special interest of big business. Leave the rules in place to regulate communications.